

(NEWS photo)

And why wouldn't he smile? Willie Stevens beams broadly as he prepares to leave for the Hall home at conclusion of trial.

(NEWS photo)

HALL DEFENDANTS FREED FOREVER!—Marking the end of the nation's most famous murder trial, Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, her two brothers, Willie and Henry, and her cousin, Henry de la Bruyere Carpenter, were freed of last faint shadow of suspicion in connection with celebrated Hall-Mills slayings. Senator Alexander Simpson waged a losing battle as special prosecutor. Above, Mrs. Hall in her home, holding box of flowers from an anonymous well-wisher after the verdict.

(NEWS photo)

Henry Stevens in Somerville, N. J. court displayed a contented visage after announcement of the findings of the jury.

(NEWS photo)

A beaten man! After his fiery appeal to the jury, Prosecutor Simpson went out and leaned against a pillar of the courthouse as the twelve good men and true deliberated. From his attitude, the senator apparently expected decision would not be in his favor.

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

CHAPLINS' MARITAL CRAFT ON ROCKS.—Declaring she could no longer stand film comedian's treatment, Mrs. Charlie Chaplin, former Lita Grey, left actor's Beverly Hills home, taking couple's two children with her. Exclusive posed picture shows Sydney Earle Chaplin, 1 (left), and Charles Spencer Chaplin Jr., 2. This is first photo of two Chaplin children together.